

Alyeska, ALASKA Combined Alpine/Nordic 7-day Trip March 2 – 9, 2012

Trip Leaders: Valerie Wilson and Janet Starr

Contact Information: valeriesue2u@aol.com or jstarr403@yahoo.com

Cost: $1,635 for Alpine Skiers, $1,485 for Nordic Skiers
(trip subject to airline baggage fees)

With an average annual snowfall of 650 inches, 2500 vertical feet of diverse terrain and short lift lines Alyeska Resort lives up to – and helps define – Alaska’s spectacular “steep and deep” reputation. And, Alyeska offers a mountain experience for all levels of skiers and riders. For Nordic skiers, the Anchorage area has miles of incredible groomed trails, including the waterfront “Tour of Anchorage” course.

This Trip Includes: Pre-party, RT airfare Detroit to Anchorage, 2 nights in Anchorage for sight-seeing and the start of the Iditarod!, 5 nights at Alyeska Resort with deluxe slope side hotel lodging, welcome reception, 4 out of 5 day lift pass for Alpine skiers, transport for Nordic skiers, Post-party.

Lodging: With a charming chateau-style design, The Hotel Alyeska features eight floors with 304 spacious guest rooms. Each standard room provides either one king or two double beds with Serta® Presidential Pillow-Top mattresses.

- 60-passenger scenic aerial tram
- Slope-side access
- Mini refrigerator and in-room coffee maker with Starbucks™ coffee
- Bathrobes, slippers and heated towel rack
- Complimentary bottled water
- Saltwater indoor pool and 16-person whirlpool.

Payment Schedule: $500 at sign-up, $500 Oct 15, Balance by Dec 31